I bought an Austin-Healey Sprite, $2085 new, when I was 20, and got that out of my system. Now, I can't understand why anybody would buy anything but a hatchback.

I second that. After owning a Toyota station wagon I bought a sedan.
Bringing something big is out of the question. Fortunately my wife bought a hatch-back. I wanted to trade my car for a Volvo station wagon, but so far no luck. On the other hand, the Volvo would have sucked my wallet empty by now :-)
