Man, seriously – give up. You just make yourself look more and more stupid with every post.

Since you completely lack a clue, why are you pretending you have one?

So tell me, oh wise one, how will Google accomplish this task?

Sigh. Your arrogance is only exceeded by your blissful ignorance.

2 things:

- 1) recall you called me a dumbass first..... dumbass
- 2) Your friend has beaten a hasty retreat, cos he knows Im right

Given the hundreds of spam posts we have received in the last day, why are you arguing with me? Its obvious google can do nothing about it, even before you look at the specifics of the technology.
