

GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.energy.hydrogen/2004-08/0211.html>

From: Psalm 110 (sciencecop_at_sbcglobal.net)

Date: 08/08/04

Date: 8 Aug 2004 11:05:11 -0700

These are current ephemeral links to the news that North Korea can now reach the continental USA with nuclear missiles launched from submarine platforms. The submarine launch tube technology was sold to N.K. in 1994 by Toen Trading, a Moon operation based in Japan.

<http://news.google.com/news?q=North%20Korea%20Missiles%20&num=100&hl=en&lr=&ie=UTF-8&safe=off&sa=>

North Korea missiles said to threaten US

Reuters, UK – Aug 3, 2004

BERLIN (Reuters) – North Korea is deploying new land- and sea-based ballistic missiles that can carry nuclear warheads and may have sufficient range to hit the ...

Al Jazeera Iran, North Korea have advanced on nuclear arms: report
ABC Online, Australia – 4 hours ago

Intelligence officials and nuclear experts say Iran and North Korea have both made "significant progress" developing nuclear weapons programs in the past year ...

Iran, North Korea have advanced on nuclear arms – Radio Australia
Experts: Iran, North Korea moving fast on nuclear arms – The Wichita Eagle

US fails to derail illicit arms efforts – Pioneer Press (subscription)

Los Angeles Times (subscription) – Columbia Daily Tribune – all 168 related »

BBC News Identifying The True North Korean Threat

American Daily, OH – 4 hours ago

... And it explains how communist China acts as a smuggling port for weapons of mass destruction and ballistic missiles between Pakistan and North Korea. ...

Keeping Our Eye on the Ball Regarding North Korea – Cato Institute

Our man in Pyongyang – The Australian

all 12 related »

sci.energy.hydrogen: GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea

US Govt. Says N.Korea's Missiles Cannot Reach Mainland: NYT
Chosun Ilbo, South Korea – Aug 5, 2004

... paper pointed out that the North's development of missiles raises questions on whether Russians or other scientists helped North Korea develop the missiles.

North Korea Missiles 'Can Hit US Targets'

The Scotsman, UK – Jul 8, 2004

... Last year, Japan launched its first spy satellites in a multi-billion dollar program aimed at monitoring North Korea's development of long-range missiles. ...

N Korea missiles 'could reach US'

BBC News, UK – Aug 3, 2004

... North Korea has already proved it owns short-range missiles such as the Taepodong 1, which is capable of reaching a target up to 2,000km away. ...

DEBKA file Iran's Looming Missile-cum-Nuclear Threat Sparks Fresh Tensions

DEBKA file, Israel – 6 hours ago

... are trying hard to improve the capacity of their missiles, and we ... Shamkhani also denied any Iranian cooperation with North Korea in missile technology – as ...

Iran seeks to improve Shihab-3 missile as US officials say Bush ... – Albawaba Middle East News

Iran looking to improve Shahab-3 missile – Daily Times

all 10 related »

New threat from North Korea's sea-based missiles

Straits Times, Singapore – Aug 4, 2004

LONDON – North Korea is developing new sea-based ballistic missiles that can carry nuclear warheads and may have sufficient range to hit the United States ...

Russia denies it helped North Korea to develop nuclear missiles ...

Belfast Telegraph (subscription), UK – Aug 5, 2004

... Insisting there was no way such sensitive missile technology would have been transferred from Russia to North Korea, he said the R-27 missiles had been ...

N. Korea's Nodong – no joke

WorldNetDaily, OR – Aug 6, 2004

... In any case, ballistic missiles are North Korea's principal "cash crop." Where is the market for a 1,600–2,500 mile range liquid-fueled ballistic missile? ...

Downer to travel to North Korea

The Age, Australia – Aug 4, 2004

... "North Korea believes it would be good to develop its bilateral relationship with ... on Wednesday that the country was secretly

GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea

sci.energy.hydrogen: GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North developing new missiles with the ...

North Korea set to deploy missile

Houston Chronicle, TX – Aug 4, 2004

... risk. North Korea has already demonstrated the capability to fire ballistic missiles that can reach across South Korea and Japan.

New North Korea Missiles Thought to Improve on Older Weapons

PolitInfo.com, Germany – Aug 4, 2004

The respected military publication Jane's Defense Weekly says North Korea based the new missiles on the SSN6 system used in old Soviet submarines. ...

N. Korea missile could reach Alaska

Fairbanks Daily News–Miner, AK – Aug 6, 2004

... The Jane's article, which did not identify its sources, said North Korea is close to deploying two missiles—one land-based that can be moved on roads and ...

US grand strategy in East Asia

The New Nation, Bangladesh – Aug 6, 2004

... North Korea's missiles, even though they can't reach the United States, have made missile defence more politically feasible in Washington. ...

North Korea deploy new missiles

Jane's (subscription), United Kingdom – Aug 2, 2004

Emerging reports indicate that the Democratic People's Republic of Korea (North Korea – DPRK) is developing—and is in the process of deploying—at least two ...

North Korea to build new missiles using Soviet design

Gateway 2 Russia, Russia – Aug 4, 2004

North Korea is deploying new land- and sea-based ballistic missiles apparently to be based on a decommissioned Soviet submarine-launched ballistic missile, the R ...

N Korean nukes could strike US

Taipei Times, Taiwan – Aug 4, 2004

... According to the South Korean military, North Korea has 600 Scud missiles with a range of 600km and 100 Nodong missiles with a range of 1,300km. ...

New DPRK missiles could reach US land

People's Daily, China – Aug 4, 2004

... Ian Kemp, news editor of Jane's Defense Weekly, said North Korea would only spend the money and effort on developing such missiles if it intended to fit them ...

North Korea expands ballistic missile systems

ABC Online, Australia – Aug 3, 2004

GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea

sci.energy.hydrogen: GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North

... JOSEPH BERMUDEZ: The existing missiles that North Korea are currently the scud class missiles, which they call 'hwasong'. Those

...

North Korea Said to Develop Sea-Based Ballistic Missile

Cybercast News Service – Aug 4, 2004

... development. North Korea is believed to have 600 Scud missiles with a range of 600 km; and 100 Nodong missiles with a range of 1,300 km. In ...

North Korea pumps money into military

Washington Times, DC – Aug 2, 2004

... and long distances. Currently, North Korea can fire missiles throughout South Korea and at bases in Japan. Gen. LaPorte said one

...

CNN Russia denies it gave N. Korea missile technology

Toronto Star, Canada – Aug 5, 2004

... he said, is whether the missiles could reach ... The US administration is working with South Korea, Japan, China ... to negotiate an agreement with North Korea to end ...

Russia says did not give N. Korea missile know-how – Deepika all 6 related »

Made In The USSR – Soviet Era Weapons Re-Appear Around The World ...

NewsMax.com, FL – Aug 5, 2004

US defense intelligence sources assert that North Korea is developing two new missiles based on a Soviet design from the Cold War. ...

Mr Downer goes to Pyongyang

The Age, Australia – Aug 5, 2004

... new ballistic missiles that can carry nuclear warheads and may have sufficient range to hit the US – or Australia – makes the need to engage North Korea more ...

Kerry Shows Intention for Bilateral Negotiations with North Korea

Donga, South Korea – Aug 3, 2004

... places such as Iran from developing nuclear weapons. North Korea used to sell ballistic missiles and technology in the past."

StarPhoenix Canada may join US missile system

Navhind Times, India – Aug 6, 2004

... The initial US system, costing more than $ 50 billion over the next five years, is designed to shoot down inbound ballistic missiles from North Korea and other ...

Canada opens door for missile shield – The Globe and Mail

all 42 related »

Airlift of US troops from South Korea to Iraq begins in earnest

Channel News Asia, Singapore – Aug 5, 2004

... of US forces that had been based in South Korea for more than 50

GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea

sci.energy.hydrogen: GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North years to deter Stalinist North Korea. New military hardware including missiles and jets would ...

US doesn't fear North Korean missile
International Herald Tribune, France – Aug 5, 2004

... Okinawa at risk. The North has demonstrated its capability to fire ballistic missiles that can reach across South Korea and Japan. ...

Florence of Arabia
Atlantic Online – Aug 5, 2004

... mailed Crusaders on the parapets of Acre, responded with burning pitch and missiles, shouting defiance ... Are you still working for the government of North Korea?". ...

North Korea could soon be able to target US with missiles: study
Khaleej Times, United Arab Emirates – Aug 3, 2004
LONDON – North Korea is developing a pair of new ballistic missile systems, including a sea-launched model, which could soon enable the Stalinist state to ...

North Korea reportedly deploying new missile systems
Japan Today, Japan – Aug 3, 2004
BERLIN — North Korea is deploying new land- and sea-based ballistic missiles that can carry nuclear warheads and may have sufficient range to hit the United ...

Pentagon Prepares Missile Defense
Voice of America, DC – Aug 4, 2004
... into America's vulnerability to a missile attack and determined North Korea in particular was well on its way to developing ballistic missiles that could ...

America's Just War – What The NY Times Doesn't Want You To Know ...
American Daily, OH – Aug 7, 2004
... 8. Clandestine attempts between late 1999 and 2002 to obtain, from North Korea, technology related to 1,300 km range ballistic missiles, 300 km range anti-ship ...

The Jewish Institute for National Security Affairs (JINSA) Putin Overseeing Troubling State Policies, Rollback of Russian ...
The Jewish Institute for National Security Affairs (JINSA), DC – Aug 6, 2004
... on the table" Additionally, Russia has maintained ties with North Korea and Cuba. ... much of its stock of intercontinental range ballistic missiles armed with ...

North Korean hybrid missiles 'could threaten the US'
New Scientist, UK – Aug 4, 2004
Ballistic missiles capable of striking the US mainland are being developed by North Korea from decommissioned Soviet hardware, according to a UK military ...

GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea

sci.energy.hydrogen: GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North

North Korean missiles could hit US

The Age, Australia – Aug 4, 2004

North Korea is deploying new ballistic missiles that can carry nuclear warheads and may have sufficient range to hit the US mainland, according to the ...

Non-Lethal Nukes?

Antiwar.com, CA – Aug 6, 2004

... actors that have or could acquire nuclear weapons and ballistic missiles enabling them ... According to Jane's, North Korea has developed and is deploying, two new ...

US troops leave Seoul for Iraq

CNN – Aug 5, 2004

... up its military might in South Korea by deploying newer weapons, including Patriot anti-missile systems, that could protect against North Korean missiles. ...

N Korean missiles may make it to US

Sydney Morning Herald, Australia – Aug 4, 2004

... Ian Kemp, news editor of Jane's Defence Weekly, said North Korea would develop such missiles only if it intended to fit them with nuclear warheads. ...

Report cites new missiles in North

Joongang Ilbo, South Korea – Aug 3, 2004

... North Korea has missiles capable of reaching the western US mainland, Vice Admiral Lowell Jacoby, director of the Defense Intelligence Agency, told Congress in ...

British Publication Warns of North Korean Missiles

Voice of America, DC – Aug 3, 2004

... Weekly. The magazine's editor, Ian Kemp, says Russian experts have played a key role in helping North Korea develop new missiles. "Our ...

N. Korea Developing Missiles to Hit US: Jane's Defense Weekly

Chosun Ilbo, South Korea – Aug 4, 2004

... The magazine said the ground-launched and sea-launched missiles magnifies the threat posed by North Korea's ballistic missiles, and indicated that sub-launched ...

We're Losing the Arms Race With North Korea

Slate – Jul 27, 2004

... But stick with me. The missile-defense complex in Alaska is designed specifically to help shoot down long-range ballistic missiles launched from North Korea. ...

N Korean missiles threaten US: report

Sydney Morning Herald, Australia – Aug 3, 2004

US officials had previously claimed that North Korea was developing

GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea

sci.energy.hydrogen: GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea missiles, based on the Soviet submarine-launched SSN6, which were capable of hitting the ...

'North Korean missiles could target US'

Daily Times, Pakistan – Aug 3, 2004

... The origin of the new missiles is believed to be shown by an incident in 1992 ... which developed the R-27, were detained as they tried to leave for North Korea. ...

BBC News UK urges monitors for North Korea

BBC News, UK – Jul 28, 2004

... It added: "North Korea is a particular cause for concern because of its willingness to sell ballistic missiles to anyone prepared to pay in hard currency." ...

John Kerin: Our leading role as peacemaker

The Australian, Australia – Aug 4, 2004

... reconnaissance plane, test-fired three ground-launched anti-ship missiles and threatened ... McLean handed over a letter from Mr Downer urging North Korea to give ...

Korean missile threat to US

The Scotsman, UK – Aug 3, 2004

NORTH Korea is deploying new land- and sea-based ballistic missiles that can carry nuclear warheads and may have sufficient range to hit the United States, it ...

Jane's: US in Range of Pyongyang

Moscow Times, Russia – Aug 3, 2004

US officials claimed in September that North Korea had developed missiles based on the Soviet submarine-launched SSN6, with a potential range of 15,000 ...

[ANN]Washington's blind eye on proliferation

Korea Herald, South Korea – Aug 6, 2004

... We know too that when Saudi Arabia bought these Chinese missiles in 1988, Israel ... opinion behind a hard line on nuclear nonproliferation in North Korea and Iran ...

Repeat Show: 9/11 Panel Points to Institutional-failure

Times of India, India – Aug 1, 2004

... to examine all the available intelligence concerning the threat from ballistic missiles. ... The commission singled out Iran, Iraq and North Korea as the greatest ...

South Korea: North Korea deploying new missiles that can reach ...

Boston Herald, MA – Jul 8, 2004

... North Korea's missiles and its massive rocket and artillery batteries, deployed close to the border with South Korea, pose the greatest threat to South Korean ...

GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea

sci.energy.hydrogen: GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North

N. Korea Putting Nuclear-Capable Missiles at Sea, Jane's Says
Bloomberg – Aug 3, 2004

Aug. 3 (Bloomberg) -- North Korea is deploying land- and sea- based ballistic missiles possibly derived from Soviet-era weapons that can carry nuclear warheads ...

INVESTOR'S BUSINESS DAILY

Investor's Business Daily (subscription) – Aug 4, 2004

North Korea: Kim Jong-Il's regime reportedly has missiles capable of reaching the US with nuclear warheads. The next administration ...

Israel May Be Compelled to Pre-empt
Opinion Editorials, VA – Aug 2, 2004

... We were fooled by North Korea and then surprised at their progress. ... We know they are also acquiring more and better missiles as delivery systems. ...

'94 Deal With North Korea Holds Lessons for Today

New York Times, NY – Jul 19, 2004

... If North Korea's "Missiles `R' Us" expands into "Nukes `R' Us," selling nuclear weapons to Al Qaeda, how will the United States react?

...

Hurray For 'Ambiguity'

Payvand, Iran – Aug 2, 2004

... North Korea is considered to be already nuclear armed, as are Pakistan and India, with ... to pounce on its neighbors or ready to aim its nuclear missiles at Tel ...

Our Capitalist Economy, Our Socialist Government

American Daily, OH – Aug 5, 2004

... administration came up with the ludicrous idea that we were threatened by rogue states, epitomized by North Korea and its one or two long-range missiles, or by ...

NKorea could target US with missiles

ABC Asia Pacific, Asia – Aug 3, 2004

A leading military publication says North Korea is developing a pair of new ballistic missile systems, including a sea-launched model, which could soon enable ...

Korea has US within range

Melbourne Herald Sun, Australia – Aug 4, 2004

NORTH Korea is deploying two new missile systems that could enable it to reach the ... The respected magazine said the new missiles have a range of 2500km or more. ...

South Korea says North Korea deploying new ballistic missiles

eTaiwan News, Taiwan – Jul 8, 2004

North Korea has begun making and deploying new intermediate-range ballistic missiles that could reach US military targets in Okinawa,

GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea

sci.energy.hydrogen: GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North

Japan and the Pacific US ...

Progress slow in preventing nuke sales

Taipei Journal, Taiwan – Jul 29, 2004

... Additionally, North Korea has been aggressively developing ballistic missiles capable of delivering nuclear weapons as well as chemical and biological weapons. ...

US to Ask North Korea to Give Up Ballistic Missiles

Chosun Ilbo, South Korea – Jul 11, 2004

TOKYO — The US will ask North Korea to give up ballistic missiles, in addition to its nuclear weapons and nuclear weapon development programs, as the price ...

Lockheed Upgrading Destroyers to Monitor North Korea (Update1)

Bloomberg – Jul 15, 2004

... statement to Bloomberg News. ``North Korea has been developing long-range missiles for many years. We have repeatedly made clear ...

Japan Worried About North Korea 's New Missile Deployment

DefenseNews.com (subscription) – Jul 8, 2004

... "We can assume that the range of North Korea's ballistic missiles will be extended further," Moriya told a news conference here. ...

The Dragon Stirs

Tech Central Station – Aug 2, 2004

... Ironically, the announcement a few months later that North Korea had acquired ... Victor-III class and armed with intercontinental ballistic missiles, and a Type ...

US Asks North Korea to Abandon Ballistic Missiles In Exchange For ...

Donga, South Korea – Jul 11, 2004

... "A guarantee of security to North Korea will become effective after its renouncement of all warheads and long-distance ballistic missiles." ...

Worries Push Oil To New Record

Investor's Business Daily (subscription) – Aug 4, 2004

... 93. It's possible North Korea may also sell the missiles. More. Terrorists killed 6 Iraqi national guardsmen in a suicide bombing. ...

Show of force

Town Hall, DC – Aug 2, 2004

... 75 aircraft, 4 combat ships, a submarine, cruise missiles and 6,500 ... Iran cracking open UN-sealed nuclear facilities and North Korea's continued belligerent ...

US sees Libya as model on North Korea

International Herald Tribune, France – Jul 20, 2004

... North Korea, a key provider of missiles to Libya and other Middle Eastern states, was named by Bush as part of an "axis of evil" along

GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea

sci.energy.hydrogen: GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North with Iran and pre-war ...

North Korea fortifying since war in Iraq, South's government ...

Pacific Stars and Stripes, Japan – Jul 9, 2004

... During a December 2002 ship intervention in the Indian Ocean, Spanish forces found 15 Scud missiles purchased from North Korea by Yemen. ...

The Electromagnetic Pulse Commission Warns of an Old Threat with a ...

Heritage.org, DC – Aug 4, 2004

... Nations with small numbers of nuclear missiles, such as North Korea or Iran, may consider an EMP attack against US forces in a region, to degrade the US ...

Rice to meet top Chinese leaders on North Korea, Taiwan

Channel News Asia, Singapore – Jul 7, 2004

... Dick Cheney in April that was also dominated by North Korea and Taiwan. ... has expressed concerns over the deployment of some 500 ballistic missiles along China's ...

The US Stumbles Over North Korea, Taiwan

Antiwar.com, CA – Jul 11, 2004

... South Korean officials claim that North Korea has deployed more missiles with an even longer reach than previous missiles shot into the Pacific, while US ...

North Korea admits nuclear weapons programs

The Age, Australia – Jul 15, 2004

... than conventional forces, chemical weapons, ballistic missiles, matters of that sort," he said. Aside from the United States and North Korea, the other parties ...

North Korea: US Uncertain About Pyonyang's Nuclear Intentions

Radio Free Europe, Czech Republic – Jul 16, 2004

... The US Central Intelligence Agency has estimated that North Korea already possesses at least two nuclear weapons along with medium-range missiles capable of ...

Nuclear Terror

Freezerbox – Aug 2, 2004

... size of their nuclear bombs, first so they could fit onto missiles, later so ... dithering response to the ongoing double-crisis in Iran and North Korea and the ...

North Korea is the real threat, which seems lost on Chinese ...

Newsday, NY – Jul 10, 2004

Persuading North Korea to give up its nuclear weapons program remains one of the ... Pyongyang has begun deploying a new class of long-range missiles capable of ...

GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea

sci.energy.hydrogen: GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea

Pakistan Bought Long-Range Missile Technology from North Korea
Donga, South Korea – Jul 18, 2004

"My visit to North Korea in December 1993 ... Pakistan has claimed that it developed missiles with its own technology after a successful flight test of ballistic ...

Don't go ballistic over missile shield
Straits Times, Singapore – Jul 25, 2004

... National Assembly, the South Korean defence ministry said that North Korea was now building and deploying intermediate-range Taepodong-1 missiles capable of ...

Clinton: North Korea More Dangerous Than Iraq
Donga, South Korea – Jul 19, 2004

... North Korea is the most isolated country in the world, and it cannot properly feed its people. However, its million-strong armed forces, powerful missiles, and ...

US worried by N. Korea, Iran missile link: Report
Malayala Manorama, India – Jul 24, 2004

... Japan is also concerned about North Korea's Rodong-1 missiles, which have a range of around 1,300 km (800 miles), and upon which Iran's Shahab-3 ballistic ...

7/26/04 – FOLLOWING LIBYA'S LEAD

Voice of America, DC – Jul 26, 2004

... US Central Intelligence Agency has estimated that North Korea already possesses one or possibly two nuclear weapons along with medium-range missiles capable of ...

The Ultimate Preventable Catastrophe
San Francisco Chronicle, CA – Jul 31, 2004

... is likely that North Korea's suspected stockpile of two to eight nuclear bombs is already more than enough deterrence to keep American cruise missiles in their ...

North Korean Prisoners 'Killed in Chemical Trials'

The Scotsman, UK – Jul 27, 2004

... The Butler report said North Korea was developing missiles capable of delivering nuclear weapons to continental USA and Europe. ...

Transfers 'ready to fight' in Iraq
Washington Times, DC – Jul 31, 2004

... Instead of facing the North Korean military's traditional tanks, airplanes and missiles, the unit in ... The team's return to South Korea after the ...

Alleged Syrian nuclear plans elicit debate
Daily Star, Lebanon – Jul 23, 2004

... relied on a chemical weapons program as a deterrent to Israel and an extensive collection of ballistic missiles, developed with the aid

GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea

sci.energy.hydrogen: GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North of North Korea and Iran ...

Pakistan bought missile technology from North Korea: Bhutto

Pakistani Newspaper, Pakistan – Jul 18, 2004

... It is widely believed that a series of Pakistan's Ghauri missiles are based on North Korea's Nodong missile. Bhutto told Asahi that ...

[ANN]Don't go ballistic over missile shield

Korea Herald, South Korea – Jul 26, 2004

... to the National Assembly, the South Korean Defense Ministry said North Korea was now building and deploying intermediate-range Taepodong-1 missiles capable of ...

Changing the guard on missile defense

Washington Times, DC – Jul 27, 2004

... If the range estimates are accurate, they would go up to 3 times farther than the Nodong missiles North Korea uses to threaten Japan and US bases there, adding ...

Seoul: N. Korea deploys missiles

Chicago Tribune (subscription), IL – Jul 9, 2004

... North Korea's missiles, rocket and artillery batteries pose the greatest threat to South Korea and 37,000 US soldiers in the South.

...

South Korea, Japan Offer North Better Ties to End Nuclear Row

Bloomberg – Jul 21, 2004

... said today the establishment of ties depends on the dismantling of North Korea's nuclear weapons, addressing Japan's concerns over its missiles and clarifying ...

The Arms Keep Coming—But Who Pays?

The Irrawaddy News Magazine, Burma – Aug 3, 2004

... a small submarine, and possibly even a number of SCUD short-range ballistic missiles. Late last year there were even suggestions that North Korea was assisting ...

Sowing the seeds of destruction

Jerusalem Newsire, Israel – Aug 2, 2004

... pushing ahead with its efforts to become a nuclear power, last month ordering new, long-range surface-to-surface missiles from North Korea, and simultaneously ...

On this day

News24, South Africa – Aug 1, 2004

... US military discloses it has successfully tested heat-seeking missiles to be ... 1977 – North Korea creates a "military sea boundary" off its coastline and says ...

Crude Spike Hurts Stocks

Smartmoney.com (subscription) – Aug 4, 2004

GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea

sci.energy.hydrogen: GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North

... continuing violence in Iraq loomed long-term threats from Iran and North Korea. ... Hermit Kingdom is reportedly deploying long-range ballistic missiles capable of ...

The Vice President Attends a Bush-Cheney '04 Question and Answer ...
Whitehouse.gov (press release) – Aug 3, 2004

... weapons technology to some of the world's less attractive regimes: North Korea, Iran and ... Africa embassy bombings we fired off a few cruise missiles at training ...

[ANN]Japan flexing military muscle
Korea Herald, South Korea – Aug 1, 2004

... of intercepting medium-range missiles. In fact, the deployment of a missile defense system by Japan is intended to contain China and North Korea, and lay the ...

DPRK on war alert, says South Korea
Daily Times, Pakistan – Jul 7, 2004

... US intelligence reports say North Korea has developed ballistic missiles with a range of up to 4,000 kilometers (2,500 miles). "It ...

GW Bush's buddy, Washington Times Owner Sun Myung Moon sold NUKE delivery system to North Korea