So you sort of support the Soldiers but not quite? Are you going to vote for both candidates for President because you can't quite decide? How about are you a creationist or not? You can't just say the Universe is 15 billion years 6 thousand too. You can't say that mankind was created by God and also he was a product of Evolution too. One thing contradicts the other, that's logic, both can't be true. Either you support the US Soldiers or you don't.
