Ok, Bill. I thought I was using it pretty well, especially when the technology of SHEC Labs backs me up every time. Tami is out of the company, Ray will soon be out of the company, yet I will remain in, and in. Not because of who I am, although that helps, but because of who I know, will I get what I want. In this case, that is CASH, CASH and more CASH to shareholders, as always, to take advantage of my unparalleled business acumen.
