My cash has always come from my clients repeat,repeat,repeat,repeat always profitable business with me. Who do I consider shareholders???

I wasn't considering those guys, they consider themselves.

That's why I have a problem with them. Al, if I were expecting a lawsuit, I would already have one filed. You don't know me. I'm sure we would never talk if my vehicle wasn't some geek factory making gas all day.

Gotta go where the cash is. Every day is a new day in hydrogen manufacturing.
