Alan,

I know SHEC is actively seeking more globally qualified businessmen to hold a BOD position. Ray Fehr, Tom Beck, and the rest of those clowns are local yokels, who cannot take SHEC Labs very far. Jamie Bakos is the most qualified board member, yet he too will have to be replaced once SHEC has begun full blown commercialization.

It's not my concern where Ray Fehr is going. It's my concern where SHEC Labs is going. I have all kinds of inside information, Alan.
