Those are not my words, Al. Those are the words of a chick who has been terminated by the company for reasons disclosed to me by SHEC Labs.

My posts are getting the job done, my friend. Don't you worry your head off. By the way, the engineers and scientists are doing a great job with SHEC, along with New Board Member Jamie Giffels, K, you remember doltboy, the genius you decided to slander. This company's stock will be a high flyer for years to come.
