It looks like Stanley Meyer's brother Stephen has been working on promoting the lore of the water fuel cell, Bwahahahahaha !

complete with half-billion dollar buyout offers from the Arabs and the oil companies,

Oh right ! Really ?

Bigger Bwahahahahaaa !

Belgian investors wanting to fund a research laboratory, and Meyer's murder via poisoning.

Fall over laughing Bwaahahhahahaha !

Belgians are better educated than that. I'm not falling for it.

Re: Stanley Meyer Water Fuel Cell

Heck Graham, that Meyer Scam worked reasonably well on suckers once before, so I can see why the Stan's brother is giving it a second try.

I think's it funny that both of the Meyer brothers have major foreign investors always available to build them research facilities and invest in their ridiculous scam...which only shows how terminally stupid are the targeted marks of this fraud scheme are assumed to be.

Harry C.

Um, a third try actually.

A Candian company was nailed to the wall by their equivalent of the SEC of an intermediate Meyer attempt.
