On Tue, 15 Mar 05 15:39:14 GMT, in a place far, far away, lparker@emory.edu (Lloyd Parker) made the phosphor on my monitor glow in such a way as to indicate that:

>>final report (which also cleared no one of anything).
>Yeah, you Clinton haters won't rest until you find a way to blame him for >Lincoln's assassination. And what's the matter, Little Man, forgot to >spell his name with a K like the rest of the right-wing nuts out there?

I'm not a "Clinton hater." I'm just someone who's not a Clinton koolaid drinker, and actually familiar with the history, something you've demonstrated yourself to be multiply ignorant of.

I find these ad hominem, and accusations of lying a fascinating insight into your apparently tortured soul. If you're really a "scientist," as you claim, and so incapable of logic, or clear thinking, or persuasive argumentation, I'd be ashamed to be a colleague of yours, and wonder how you managed to get a job. Emory should be embarrassed, if you really work there.
