The public don't want to be honestly informed, ..they want lies,
..sweet little lies. The last thing they want is somebody telling them they should be getting upset, when the kickoff's at 3pm, and the grog's in the cooler already.

"boring, ..boring"... (Mindnumbingly boring...")

(Democracy and who needs it, when terrorism is much more exciting.. and too much upset should be avoided.)

Seen any good terrorists lately? (First, weapons of mass destruction.
Second, getting rid of a tyrant in his own tyranny. Third, Food for oil, ..)

The only terrorists I know are the ones peddling plate tectonics on this newsgroup, some of whom have the highest credentials but can't answer the simplest of questions on convection. I think they're waiting for some word or other to be handed down from on high – a public affairs writer with the USGS or NASA maybe.

(Taking heart from the fact that Skywise says he things for himself...,
...when he'th not thingking about beath ballth.)

Here's a song:
