Yes, it's exactly like Nazi Germany or the Soviet Union. No doubt Mr. Hansen will soon be marched off to the gulag, or summarily executed with a pistol shot to the head and buried in an unmarked grave with other enemies of the state.

Amerika's masterplan is to force GM food on the world.

Relevant part reads:

Within hours of the WTO decision, José Bové, the French farmer who has led European protests, arrived in New York to give an invited talk to Cornell students about GM food – and was immediately sent back to France by the US government.

was immediately sent back to France by the US government.

"French farmer who has led European protests." lol! Talk about whitewashing somebody's past and agenda.

I'm quite pleased to hear that he was actually caught trying to enter the country and was immediately sent back. Maybe he and Cat Stevens can meet for lunch and commiserate over a Roquefort sandwich.
