As Brad Guth puts it I address the following to all future trolls including the last one:

Stevepppp, just a FYI : Timberwoof may be one of the more abrasive characters in this little corner of USENET,

I don't give him that much credit.

Keep dreaming. True, he's lost his edge lately as a troll, hitting a few ontopic softballs. He needs to be reschooled as a troll.

He disagreed with you without being startlingly rude,

Not "startling" rude, but just rude? I have no problem with an occasional rude comment backed by substance. Blatent misquotes and lies (scroll up for a living example here) are much worse.

and presented well-founded points to address many of the problems you perceive.

80% of his vomit is just that. Too little substance, glaringly wrong where there is substance, or inserting links to notorious b.s. sites which he believes are chiseled by God .. taken right out of the pages of the Troll For Dummies handbook.

That's
being constructive and educational in my book.

Like your input here, it's not.

If you don't like having holes picked in your pet theories, that's your lookout.

I welcome it. Read the headline. Pick away. if you can't without lying fine. Expect to be blacklisted as a Troll. You might even become one yourself.

Personally, I suspect that you're a sock puppet for Brad Guth.

Try again Sherlock, wrong puppet. The only ontopic issue I somewhat agree with Guth is the collision theory, I'm not 100% convinced of that, he seems 0% convinced. Scroll back and you'll find I've been opposed to nearly everything Guth says. About the only subject we agree on is when it comes to sniffing out trolls.

Guth also happens to stay on topic more than most of the trolls you admire.
