Any readers of this who use a GPS know the answer to this question:

Do topographical, not road, maps of Europe exist for use with a GPS?

I have searched the Garmin and TomTom sites and done Google searches for the answer to this question and have come up empty handed. I can find lots of topo maps of the U.S. & Canada, but not of Europe.

Specifically, I am looking at GPS topo maps of Italy to use on hikes there.

Many thanks,
Bob
