You've got the special Chinese version, which is limited to the things the Chinese ruling party's central committee wants you to see. (:-)

You added a smiley face, so I'm not sure if that was meant as a joke.....but it does in fact seem to be the case!!! I have discovered that the *ONLY* cities I can fly to are in China!!!

Is there some setting (a registry key or something) that can force a change in the default setting? Are there really different versions? Is it possible to get a different one?

Honestly, I have no clue. I was really only making a joke. But who knows?
