7th IEEE International Conference on Cybernetic Intelligent Systems
2008
September 9–10, 2008
Middlesex University, London
United Kingdom
<http://www.cybernetic.org.uk/cis2008>

Aims and objectives

This is the seventh in a series of successful international conferences organised by IEEE Systems, Man and Cybernetics Society the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland Chapter. These conferences provide an interdisciplinary forum for research and application of various aspects of cybernetics and systems. The theme of the 2008 conference is Cybernetic Intelligent Systems.

Theme and scope

The programme committee solicits high quality papers containing original contributions in all areas of experimental, theoretical and application-oriented aspects of cybernetic intelligent systems. This will include papers describing Relevant techniques for intelligent systems including, but not limited to, neural networks, evolutionary methods, fuzzy systems, knowledge and agent based approaches Systems using cybernetic intelligent approaches, such as robotics, control, modelling, instrumentation, communications, machine vision, audiological systems, safety and security systems and frameworks Industrial applications of cybernetic intelligent systems

Paper Submission

Prospective authors are strongly encouraged to submit a full six page paper (A4 size) by the due date electronically in PDF or Postscript format.

Proceedings

Printed proceedings will be distributed during the conference. For reference the designated ISSN numbers are 1744–9170 (printed) and 1744–9189 (CD-ROM)
