Curt Fischer <tentrillion@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx> dixit:

>Anyway, how do people feel about the '–ability of R<.

I see the Tanaka corpus has a single case of ' R< (out of 163 examples of R<):

SnOLkφY<PŠ Bj_oê n–û' R%œ~[“

As far as this problem is concerned, you cannot escape your responsibility.

All the other "escape from" examples use K%, but they are escapes from a physical thing – prison, fire, etc. Many of the ' R< examples in WWW pages seem also to be escaping from something non–concrete. Correct? IANANS.
