Current Edict entry

㊦ KOE n (n) magic cloak of invisibility

It might be worth having a partial kana version.

㊦ 380,000
E n 70,200
KOE n 28,100

Also you could make the less literal meaning more obvious.

"a cover; a front (e.g. for illegal activities)"

Suggested new entry

N%do (v5k) (1) to glare; to dazzle (2) to glitter (see N%N%)

N%do 29,400
@édO 30,900

EDICT : kakuremino (part kana); giratsuku

In theory I suppose it has the kanji
㊦ / ㊦ but in practise there are very few hits for them (75 / 0)

I suspect a lot of ABABh ìK and ìó also have ABdO / ABeO forms.
