Clearly, you can't count past "one".

I'll repeat my fucking "second question" again:

And after all that, you still haven't learnt not to snip relevant material from previous posts?

And again:

And after all that, you still haven't learnt not to snip relevant material from previous posts?

And again:

And after all that, you still haven't learnt not to snip relevant material from previous posts?

Now you can snip it again. You can even do it three more times, since you seem to enjoy it so much. (That'll make 40,003 times total, right?)
