Warning:

If you are amazed and think you hear the word 'sex' on Portugal's classical music station Antena 2, you heard wrong. It's actually
"segue-se", as in "Segue-se a música de Haendel", "we will now be listening to some music by Haendel".

]There is a word that does sound like sex-Sechs, the number six in german.

Yes, except that it starts with a [z], not [s]. But you are right, in Austria (and perhaps southern Germany too?) this is an [s]!

You're right; [z] is rarely heard in southern Germany.

Ekkehard
