I don't remember you[r] being part of my immediate family and having personal knowledge of my ex from hell. But if she had acted like your forbidden love (you know, Freifrau von Hasenhirn), I'd have kicked her ass out the door after 30 days instead of 30 years.

Only lunetic would be condemning his ex-wife publicly, talking about 25 years of "associated raising hell".

Look, busybody Balkan boy: First, keep your fuckin' face out of my life, okay? Second, since you don't understand English, keep your fuckin' face shut. I wrote: "Divorced in 1990 after 25 years of increasing hell." You write: "associated raising hell" and (below) "a rising hell." My statement is good English; your attempted paraphrases are gibberish. Ask Heidi von Hasenhirn (H.v.H.) to explain this to you.

Rising, raising or increasing lunacy is the best description of your behavior. Do not get confused. It was not my fault that your wife ran away from you.

And as to "lunetic" — have you looked into a mirror lately? Do you see there that anachronistic troubadour and chivalrous knight Du?an frothing and fighting for the honor of his unattainable and harebrained old broad Heidi?

Not at all. Heidi is able to cope with dickheads of your caliber; she does not need anyone's help. I would not interfere in this discussion at all if you were not mentioned my name.

Obviously, you are too blind of hate against your ex-wife

How juvenile. And don't you ever learn from your mistakes? Now you got the hots for Heidi, whose burly husband would beat the crap out of you if you ever tried to shtup his wife (and whose marriage you claim to respect). What's with your hang-up with married wimmen, anyway? Some unresolved Oedipal conflict raging in your poetic breast?

You are too stupid to understand it.

The married woman to whom I wrote my "forbidden" poetry was (and still is) my wife. It is the woman with whom I have been sharing good and bad times for almost 30 years. When she wrote your silly words she kissed me and told: "I love you so much my dear Balkan-boy!"

But enough already with this tomfoolery. I don't want to piss off my pals in <sci.lang>. This newsgroup is not the right place to keep mocking a blustering Balkan busybody who's trying to show the world what a sensitive, caring, woman-adoring schmuck he is and hoping to get laid by some dizzy dame.

You are looking at the man/woman relation from your own sick perspective. Your hatred against women is so big that you are unable to see the world as a normal person. Only one sentence you wrote about your ex-wife is enough to discribe the volume of your psychological derangement and disorientation. Read your crazed words again:
