Get your eyeballs on that for a clue.

I am not interested in your ramblings. You just nicely apologize and never show your face here ever again.

I like you. If you want to get off the blacklist, be nicer to me. I "may" be able to schmooze a deal with the scumbags. I will at least ask.

Practically unprovoked, you have called me about every rude name there is in English and Russian, and the only reason why you haven't done it in Irish is the sad fact that you don't know Irish particularly well. Then you are asking me "to be nicer to you". Your arrogance really knows no bounds.

I think it is a moral obligation to sue you for defamation. In the heat of discussion and debate, even normal people lose their tempers and insult each other occasionally. This is normal. Your campaign of personal insults, however, reveals a remorseless person who is obviously grossly ignorant of the normal standards of human behaviour, thus a criminal, mischievous and irredeemable character. This kind of people must be restrained.

Tu dois me vouloir un peu, non?

I am sorry, I don't speak French, and if you do, I think I never will.
