Thanks for posting that letter, Steve. It is interesting. Whatever Rick Ross forwarded to the Senator, it was likely not information about his own criminal background.

My guess there was nothing in the information to avoid Koresh going nuts and saving the lives of the others.

An expert should not make any mistakes, Ricki Rossi, and esp. not in the title of an article!

And not within the "cult experts"? Who are not really experts! I can't believe it. What about the children who burned in there? It was their fault? How irresponsible!

And worse, the injustice sparked another nut, Timothy McVeigh and some more 170 dead people! You "cult experts" are a nightmare and real losers! Wonder if any of you ever does something safe and sane.

I doubt that he will learn anything being in touch with you. Again, Rick Ross, you should have studied the habits of Koresh and should have come up with a peaceful solution for the feds. You are of course not the only person guilty here, but just as guilty as the other ridiculous "experts".

Oh that is great! Study Rick Rosses criminal history on the www.religiousfreedomwatch.org, Mr. Paul Simon, and everybody else.

Is he still in contact with you, Rick?
