Look, buddy, if you think this type of crapola is more about logic than what I posted, you belong in kindergarten. Perhaps that is the problem. What's your IQ? What are YOUR qualifications of those of your protege, John Jones? Is this the blind leading the blind? Your approach is so pedestrian, you must just hate anyone who is digging his teeth into something a bit more real. BTW, everything in my post has been learned in the past ten days. I am not some kind of religious kook, as you presume in your bigoted state of convinced atheism. My specialty is the foundation of quantum theory.

Moreover, the only reason I posted here in the first place is to awaken the conscience of John Jones, who came over to the groups I was posting on and started carrying on with his infantile desecration and defacing of my posts. If you support those actions, YOU should be banned, as well.

Blow me, asswipe.
