I was busking (offering my work for money) at Five Corners on Broadway Avenue, Kevin stopped to provide stats, he says his family is Catholic and Jewish while he is a Pentecostal. He may have made an error in the spelling of sister Janell's middle name. Kevin said he had no money for me, and then he was incredulous that I would not attend and support one of the local filthy churches. I showed Kevin gems, but next Sunday he will give money to a wolf who teaches him to turn a tree into a decorated idol. I showed Kevin gems, but next Sunday he will give money to a wolf who teaches him that God's Commandments, especially God's 4th Commandment, are no longer valid. Kevin, the only support I've ever received from Christians in the community is no support at all, all they want me to do is come and support their chosen filthy church, or alternatively they want me locked up and chemically lobotomized. Rather than assisting their fellow Christians, people instead bankrupt themselves supporting a church building where they can sing around a decorated tree and under an Egyptian obelisk (a representation of a penis). God's true remnant church is marked by two attributes, they keep God's Commandments and also have the faith of Jesus (Revelation 12:17 and 14:12), while Kevin supports churches that teach salvation is attainable by faith alone. I showed Kevin gems and he was incredulous that I would not join with him in supporting one of Satan's false churches. Some Catholics and Protestants hired Hindus and had me tortured, and then I meet with people calling themselves Christians and their only concern is that I support their chosen church.
