[Hammond]

Hey... I've got "insurance" remember.... it doesn't matter if Dembski turns out to be just another "hostile witness".... fact is the only legitimate criticism of Dembski's ID is that it is a "default theory"... IOW it claims to eliminate all scientific explanations of Evolution so therefore "by default" ID must exist. Obviously this can never be a "proof" of ID since you need a "causal explanation of ID" to prove it. Hammond has now DISCOVERED THE CAUSAL MECHANISM OF ID.

therefore, even if Dembski chooses to be a hostile witness... the fact is thE word is out that the "causal mechanism" of ID has been found by Hammond.

The point is, all these people want is one thing... to "disprove Darwin".. that's REALLY ALL THEY WANT TO DO. And the fact is, Hammond has given them the superweapon that does that.... so in the end... they will have to overlook their jealousy of Hammond in order to "get Darwin".... which is the only thing they're really interested in doing.... and I predict they're going to do it... and the SPoG will ride that tidal wave to fame and glory. ROFL
