To borrow from a certain poster's recent musing:

How curious that a certain poster just happens to announce he will stop posting to usenet, exactly when certain comments of his are coming due, with regards to one of the Major Achievements(tm).

Original is gone from Google, but you can find it in mathforum:

<http://mathforum.org/kb/message.jspa?messageID=412528&tstart=0>

(mathforum moved recently; in case it moves again, you can see it quoted in:

<http://groups-beta.google.com/group/sci.math/msg/1eb2a2dc279b3440>
)

Or perhaps:

<http://groups-beta.google.com/group/alt.math.undergrad/msg/f46b07d700734f1b>
<http://groups-beta.google.com/group/alt.math.undergrad/msg/e35e9a1f6fa80de0>

Can it truly be coincidence that he decides to announce he will stop posting ->now<-?

Really?
