

a question about reducible polynomials

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.math/2006-04/msg00162.html>

- From: amanda <suyimesnowfish@xxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Sat, 01 Apr 2006 19:27:07 EST
-

if $f(x)$ is a polynomial of integral coefficients with $\deg(f)=n$, then why there are infinitely many integers m such that $f(x)-m$ is reducible over $\mathbb{Q}[x]$, where \mathbb{Q} means rationals.
thanks