You keep saying you searched your "memory" and "evidence".

And from that basis, you feel good about yourself? You're a fucking joke.

Look Jesse, you are clearly just too dumb to search the archives.

Your Google search was lame and cursory.

Your memory is faulty.

Do your homework BEFORE you open your mouth, you asshole!

I CAN SEARCH THE ARCHIVES to back up what I said. Obviously, my ability to search the archives is better than yours. And clearly my memory is better than yours.

Oh, no doubt.

Why won't I **prove** what I said? Because YOU ARE THE IDIOT who took the position of knowing the "truth" of Quinn's postings, YET you can't find a single posting of Quinn related to Quinn's asinine "closed list" statement.

Darn. You **could** prove you're right, but I'm unworthy.

Very believable.

Re: Search the archives, you idiot! Or shut up!

Quinn Tyler Jackson used a lame "closed list" argument to bullshit this newsgroup regarding James Harris.

Anyone who denies Quinn said it is a complete imbecile.

C'mon Jesse, find ONE SINGLE POSTING of Quinn's regarding his "closed list" statement.

You CAN'T? You ARE UNABLE TO? (snicker)

Oh look! Here's a totally arbitrary and intentionally irrelevant post I found. Where? From my memory? From my imagination? From a well of lies? No, you dumb fuck Jesse F. Hughes, it's FROM THE ARCHIVES.

Do you deny that these are your words (for a totally irrelevant topic)?

[snip]

These are my words. What's your point? That you can find a random post by me?

Big deal. I already gave an excerpt of a *relevant* post from Quinn that suggests your claim is false. I couldn't find any post at all suggestive of what you claimed.

Now, I'm sure you're a much cleverer archive searcher than I am. Why, you've already shown you can find *random*, *irrelevant* messages, and I'm not sure I can do that. So, I'm sure that you have the evidence at hand.

It's just such a shame you won't share it.
