You're hallucinating.

Thus they can request to provide information, confirming your unique existence before allowing communicating with the public.

"They" who?

Aatu Koskensisilta

They are administrators of Math Forum at Drexel.

If they want to fix the educational system, they could, in some ways I have suggested.

Otherwise it will become like current math community leadership in the hands of Al Capone (s) at MIT, Harvard, etc.
