There are two important days in our life. The day we are born and the day we die. Everything in between doesn't amount to a hill of beans and is quickly forgotten . All living things are conceived by seed or spores and nature supplies and over abundance of seed to insure that one will survive. The same holds true in our own creation from a single cell and one sperm. We have to realize we were the strongest sperm in that race to creation. The same applies to the Christian belief of salvation and the acceptance of a Messiah who gives hope meaning to a beastly existence in the secular world. The "Book" tells us of this principle in the parable of the mustard seed where only a few would find fertile ground and the rest, history. Also the phrase "Many are called, few are chosen". So it is with the choice and chance of salvation and I believe God chooses us. For those of us who don't experience salvation or can't understand the concept, nothing lost, just seed that withered and died in spirit. We are all born without promises or guarantees but a chance for eternal life which justifies all the unanswered questions. Dr Chung has experienced this and is jubilant in spreading "The good News"

Ossama bin Laden undoubtedly feels the same way about his relationship with
"god", and how he was chosen to spread "god's word".

Prayer

5" And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by men. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full. 6 But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you. 7 And when you pray, do not keep on babbling like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words. 8 Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.
