It seems to me I heard somewhere that Andrew B. Chung, MD/PhD wrote in article <1173469842.325378.44350@xx>:

convicted neighbor Don Kirkman wrote:

Andrew, in the Holy Spirit, boldly wrote:

[On learning of Bob Pastorio's illness]

May GOD bless Bob and Carol and the rest of their family during this their difficult time.

Prayerfully in Christ's amazing love,

[More recent messages]

You remind me of Bob Pastorio, who has had plenty of opportunity to stop rebelling against GOD.

Just as it seems to be GOD's will that Bob does not have much longer
to live in this world, it seems to be HIS will that you don't have much longer either.

You do not have long just as Bob Pastorio does not have long and for this reason you both remain in my prayers.

Please join me in praying for Bob Pastorio, who hates you
and me,
and whose life is fading away rapidly. His hatred for you may be especially deep because his wife's name is also Carol:

What a magnificent display of compassion, of concern for a fellow human being, and of what is of primary importance in life, real love for others.

In a word:

Projection.

True; I projected your cold unloving words onto the screens of whoever chose to read my message.

Clearly you remain convicted by the Holy Spirit:

You wouldn't know the Holy Spirit if it bit you.
