

march indicates Rashid el Hajeb's appreciation

Source: <http://sci.tech--archive.net/Archive/sci.med.cardiology/2007-08/msg01469.html>

- From: commercial.lip@xxxxxx (Rear Adm. A. Kruzewski, DVM)
 - Date: Thu, 23 Aug 2007 04:01:06 GMT
-

project

: the precise location on a large illuminated map located in the FBI's New : York command post.
: : When the FBI's technology head was asked how the new tracking system was
: working, he looked surprised, and didn't answer the question. "How did you : know about that?" he asked.
: : The FBI denied a request for a tour of its Manhattan command post, where
: the output from its instantaneous tracking system is displayed for the : brass.
: : In 1993, however, the FBI allowed a reporter who was working on what the : bureau expected would be a friendly article to visit the inner sanctum.
: : The command center, she later wrote, "looks not unlike the Starship
: Enterprise, of 'Star Trek.' On the rear wall of the room are three giant
: screens on which neighborhood maps, live field surveillance, and graphs
: charting the progress of a manhunt can be projected.
: : Law enforcement officials, at stations in three semicircular tiers of : desks, can watch---and direct---as criminals are caught in the act.
: : Their computer mouse screen pointers are a gun icon.

OH MY GAWD!!!!

WHAT'S NEXT, THE WHOLE DAMN COUNTRY???

What is this?

- * Subject: Air Force News Service 01oct96
- * From: webmaster@xxxxxxxx (Veterans News & Information Service)
- * Date: 1996/10/01
- * Newsgroups: soc.veterans
- *
- * Night vision lasers go to court
- * * KIRTLAND AIR FORCE BASE, N.M. (AFNS) --- More drug and
* smuggling convictions may soon result from a laser optics research
* agreement signed here Sept. 25 between the Air Force Phillips
* Laboratory and FLIR Systems, Inc.
- * * "Current sensors cannot read a license plat

march indicates Rashid el Hajeb's appreciation