What's obvious is that you're a thankless and an ungrateful *****.

You don't fool me, you're after $$$$$. Glad to have solved the puzzle!!

My body survived this after it was used at a research hospital to make money on May 25th, 1997. Now I get shit medical care and I am tired of it.

So you're after money as compensation. Typical.

How much $$$ ??

I want proper medical care for me and my son whom were damaged at Parkland on May 25th, 1997 when we were unwitting victims of a lovely scheme to create oxygen deprived damaged neonates for their NICU. The damaged neonates make gobs of money for the research. Yes, the hospital was compensated handsomely for our "care" and YES IT IS TYPICAL. You would have to ask Parkland what their net was on our case because I have no idea. I imagine they went over-budget on the cover-up so they may be in the red in my case. I was a "difficult" patient.

Glad I could clear that up for you and sorry you are confused.
