

Re: Smoking Teeth

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.med.dentistry/2005-04/msg00667.html>

- From: "Joel M. Eichen" <joeleichen@xxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Sun, 10 Apr 2005 08:00:20 -0400
-

"CWatters" <colin.watters@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in message
news:Zh56e.60756\$v55.4403230@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

>

> "Nana Weedkiller" <nanaweedkiller@xxxxxxxx> wrote in message

> news:U%Z5e.5633\$qO6.5525@xxxxxxxx

>> Remember the smoking tooth at >> <http://www.iaomt.org/> ?

>> The Healthfraud discussion list has a thread discussing the "smoke"

>> from the tooth and why the "smoke" may not be mercury.

>>

>

<http://www.ssr.com/cgi-bin/ezmlm-cgi?1:sss:97785:200504:ocklijkomahoehechfha#b>

>

> IF the plume is mercury how come its been doing that for 25 years and not > run out? I mean there is only so much mass of mercury you can fit in a > tooth.

>

>

Many people return to add some mercury back in there

Jan is not one though

Joel

PS- How old must one be to smoke teeth? There are no tars or nicotine that way through.

.

- References:
 - ◆ Smoking Teeth

Re: Smoking Teeth

◇ From: Nana Weedkiller

◆ Re: Smoking Teeth

◇ From: CWatters

- Prev by Date: Re: Jan / teeth / milk
- Next by Date: Re: Disappearing Nesbitt Bridge [longish tale]
- Previous by thread: Re: Smoking Teeth
- Next by thread: Re: Smoking Teeth
- Index(es):
 - ◆ Date
 - ◆ Thread