Hi Carabelli,

I have tried SMD in the past, but I enjoy the more organized format that Justin has here. I found the news group format difficult to use. I am really sorry if this gateway has caused a feeling of invasion for the SMD folks.

Personally, I was very excited to see all of these new people and hoping to have some good discussion!!

I hope you can give this a little more time before you jump to negative conclusions. I think it may be just a matter of getting to know one another.

Dcom really only has a few posters. We are all good people. IMHO, I don't think any of us wish to take over your discussion group or to push anyone out. We only want to be able to get to know you and take part in your discussions within this new format. (At least that is my perspective).

I hope you do not leave SMD over this. If you have any suggestions that could help us with some sort of compromise that would keep you here and posting, that would be wonderful. If it is our style posting, what we post or whatever. I hate to see anyone leave a healthy discussion group because of a format change and/or new voices.

Thank you if you can keep an open mind.

Sincerely,

Sue
