Found some @ $1.291 CDN / L. Most were about the same. Asked the kid at the counter if it the rumours about it being cheaper in the evening were true. He said to come before 11:00 PM.

| A little higher than here, around $1.35 for the ones I passed today. They have

| Personally I think we are being robbed. Crude prices have only risen about 15%
| a
| barrel, while gas prices have risen in the 30 - 50% range.
| OTOH, I stumbled across a bit of humour for those PO'ed about the price.
