Non, Monsieur!

That is why I'm getting the XL routines going; so that if they all decide to support my secretary, they can all leave, and I can still function. Being held hostage? No. But if we can't be on good terms, then what is the point? The point that matters to me is that this lady (popular though she is) has stolen money from me (when I sorely needed it) and then tried her damndest to cover it up. I cannot trust her with the petty cash, or with any form of payment involving money. If that isn't enough to make the rest see things in a different light, then there is no justice here.

Thanks
