Ha--another guitar guy. Newbie is more of a Fender man. I play mostly classical these days. Who's your guitar guru?

Steve

Frankie claims to be a female.

Fenders for electric, also have a Les Paul.

Geez, I always thought there were Fender guys and Gibson guys.
Have you heard this?

You come up with the most interesting links.
Haven't head of this, but I don't keep up much.
Can't remember the last issue of GP purchased.
It was several years ago.

Fender necks have a bit longer scale than Gibsons, and there is more radius on the fretboard. Have a bastard Tele that has a Warmoth neck that has a compound radius.

Re: Horizontally Impacted Wisdom Tooth

It plays very nicely.

Thanks Stevie
