

Re: Survival stories

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.med.diseases.cancer/2005-01/0610.html>

From: Steph (steph_at_vancouver.island)

Date: 01/29/05

Date: Sat, 29 Jan 2005 05:27:52 GMT

<whocares314@comcast.net> wrote in message news:1106973260.887630.202660@f14g2000cwb.googlegroups.com...

> Hello,

>

> My name is Mike. I am a freshmen in highschool and am currently > studying cancer. One of my assignments is to take a personal story from > a survivor and write a narrative about it. My family has been blessed > and cancer amoung my family is rare. I had a grandmother who died of > breast cancer when i was very young, and fortunatly no one in my family > has gotten it since then. I would very much appreciate any help you can > give, no matter how small or how big.

>

>

> *The main focus of the paper is to be on the process of treatment, > specifically chemotherapy. In the past week i have learned how horrible > of an experience it is, but nothing compares to the descriptions of > someone who has been through it.
> Thank you for your time and help,*

>

> Mike

>

Mike, take a hike