Typical lie, Brad.

You have no proof of this.

It is not registered.

It is an account owned by your wife, not you.

There is nothing on it in whois, etc.

It is all bullshit

That is not even mentioning the attempts you made to write scripts to screw up peeps computers, nor the complaints about getting a virus from your pages.

Your email address is your wife's old one cyberper@concentric.com or the one you supposedly answer braloj53@hotmail.com.

Based on "let your yea be yea, and your nay be nay" you and GMG are consummate liars.

If you had listened to your Dad you would not have been in the position you are now in. Of course you might have still been shoveling manure but at least you would have been paid for it.
