Happy Christmas you lunkhead.

Stll not realised you're batting for the wrong side?

You know what Iceman? A woman who tells you to your face that she thinks you are stupid when you are being stupid is worth 100 of the kind who spend their lives whining about you to their friends at coffee mornings. I guess you must still be young enough to think otherwise. Some such women ever boast about their meetings to talk about others. How stupid is that? How even more stupid is the man who trusts such women?
