Who? And is it a crime that lawyers get paid?

Oh my god. A fictional book author. I know of one. She's a total hack but hey that's just my opinion.

Buy doctors? As in to purchase doctors? Or do you mean "by" doctors. This isn't a tough one as far as the english language goes.

Did you and hick flunk out of the same texas elementary school?

Coarsed? Huh? sat them up? Huh?

Kathloon and lisa couldn't keep their big mouths shut. We advised them to. We begged them to.

No one had to set them up. They did it themselves.

Re: Someone on this Newsgroup

Whatever you're talking about I don't have a clue. And don't care.

A new conspiracy delusionist.

But maybe someone got a scholarship? Who knows or cares. Who knows what the freak you're talking about either freak.

Who and charged with what?

Looks like kathloon and lisa are the only ones actually in jail or have actually committed any crimes.

Will the arrest be for RICO? LOL

Oh yeah. Hick has committed some crimes too. Harassment. Terroristic threats. He claims to have been a pa state cop. If he was he could look it up. GUILTY.

You are such an idiot. Mauer self serving self aggrandizing sob that he was, represented Lyme patients NOT "the steere camp" (is that a place where cows go for the summer?). He set precedents FOR Lyme patients.

And made himself some money.

He's long gone from this scene anyway.

How so? In what instance? What fraudulent past? How could anyone stop anyone else from posting what they want on usenet?

No one's stopping you. If you have any evidence of anything, post it.

There sure is someting desperately wrong in the Lyme disease community. And if anyone's depending on a delusional illiterate freak like you to uncover it, that's sad. Look in the mirror if you wanna
