Here figure out what this means: GFYYM

I think you are already cracked up lisa sock puppet #191

At least I'm trying to sound intelligent. Lots of people here making no effort at all to sound stupid.

LOL She didn't switch. She still has her screenname, still an active account. She just can't access it from prison.,

I used the name a_weisman. My name. Is that a crime? I used whichever account I was using at the time. They're all mine. But I don't check them all the time. So I post using the one I am most likely to check.

Re: weisman cracks me up...

FYI: Yahoo just gave everyone expanded email accounts for free. So I am now using Yahoo most often.

Uh, thanks. That's so big of you.

If she's here she can prove it by posting from her AOL account. If she doesn't it obviously isn't her. She's in jail anyway locked away with one of those Hannibal Lechter masks in high security.

Dribble? Why don't you respond to a specific post if you want to discuss something?

I bet you swallow all the time dude.

What you swallow isn't dog biscuits. Follow me?

Well I've decided not to risk it.

That BIG ahole you mean.
