Here is a repost of a recent update on frank's newest fantasy lawsuit (he threatens to sue someone every other week the big crybaby).

Recently I made the mistake of attempting to have a discussion with Frank.

Yeah that was silly of me since he is completely irrational and insane.

However during the exchange I said something that he in his pathetic cowardly bullying view he interpreted as a threat of assassination.

Here's the URL of the message, and the relevant text:

<http://groups.google.com/groups?hl=en&lr=&ie=UTF-8&newwindow=1&safe=o...>
[context: this was a discussion about Lida Mattman and her culture test]

Frank de Groot: > People were very angry and jealous she managed to culture them.

A_Weisman: She says she managed to culture them. Gensys said the same thing. This is ALWAYS the argument that people make when claiming something extraordinary, that it was "suppressed" by the powers that be.

What bullshit.

Frank de Groot: > She caused losses to the insurance industry.

A_Weisman: How so? They didn't pay her required "donations." They didn't pay for anything based on her experimental unproven test.

More bullshit.

Frank de Groot: > She had to be eliminated.

A_Weisman: You should be eliminated. Ahole. Terrorist. Jerk.

It is the final line that Frank interprets as a "threat of assassination" or a "call for his assassination."

He considers this to be a crime.

Of course he also considers defamation to be a crime which it is NOT (it is a civil cause of action, a "tort" but not a crime—if it occurs, though please note that truth is not defamatory, nor is mere name calling, and the legal requirements of a defamation case are rigorous and include damages).

However Frank has an evolving view of the law.

He previously took the position that his writing that "Allen Steere has been scheduled for termination" was NOT a threat of assassination nor a call for his assassination but rather was a reference to his job status.

Of course this is absurd bullshit as Frank had no idea of Allen Steere's job status, this was just a retroactive and transparent attempt to cover his tracks and try to minimize the incredible damage he did to all of Lymeland by issuing this threat which then was published in the NY Times magazine article "Stalking Dr Steere"

But what is interesting is frank's rationale at the time and on other threads discussing what he thought were and were not "threats."

So let's take a walk down memory lane with a few of frank's greatest hits in which he discusses his views of the law. Later on this thread I'm going to provide a few more of frank's greatest hits, and a few revealing searches, frank using the word "kill" "threat" "death" and the c word and f words. Frank has repeatedly threatened violence towards people, applauded terrorists and their actions, expressed his admiration for Osama Bin Laden, the attacks of 9/11, his hatred for the US.

So without further ado, here's a few from the frank de groot hit parade:

Unfortunately, I will never come to the US.

Before it will be a glass surface I won't come to the US due to the fact that the US recently jailed a Russian programmer bec. in Russia, he wrote a program that violated some funny US law.

I am also a programmer, and I have no idea of any of my programs ever violated US law.

So if you want to be killed by me, you have to come here, instead of me coming to you.

After the US will be a glass surface, I will only go there to rollerscate on that nice surface when they invent a suit that can block the radioactivity.

You have to wait 1 more day though if you plan to visit me, bec. tomorrow I will go to the XXL Wildmark and buy a hunting rifle with a large magazine and lotsa cartridges. I need it bec. I'll go to Svalbard and it's mandatory to have one (Polar bears). And they force you to take a rifle with a large magazine bec. they want you to fire warning shots before you shoot the bear. That requirement makes the rifle bloody expensive, almost 20,000 NOK, with a telescope. I will keep it loaded in the drawer underneath my bed. And anyone entering my room at night, I will blow his/her head off. I will aim and then close my eyes and then pull the trigger, to prevent skull fragments damaging my retina. I pay attention to details, you know.

Next time someone writes an article saying that Lyme patients are dangerous stalkers, please remember this threat.

Last time Lyme patients denied that such a thing occurs and said that Dr Steere was paranoid.

Threats such as this are actionable. Threats such as this due a disservice to your community and represent Lyme patients badly.

This isn't funny. Death threats are a serious thing.

Stalking Dr. Steere Over Lyme Disease

By DAVID GRANN

ast year, Dr. Allen Steere, one of the world's most renowned medical researchers and rheumatologists, began to fear patients. It was not so much the ones he had treated, though he occasionally had to worry about them too, but the ones who had started to call his office, threatening him, claiming he was responsible for their suffering. They insisted that he was denying them treatment for an acute form of chronic Lyme disease, a strand of the ordinarily more modest infection that they believed slipped into the bloodstream undetected and remained there for years, causing joint pain, chronic fatigue, suicidal depression, paralysis and even death. Affirming their diagnoses were a growing number of patient advocacy groups, practitioners and psychiatrists who argued that the disease had become a full-scale epidemic, a modern-day plague crippling thousands of Americans.

As the world's foremost expert on the illness, however, Steere did not believe many of them had Lyme disease at all, but something else -- chronic fatigue or mental illness or fibromyalgia -- and he had

Saying someone 'should be killed' comparing to a death threat is comparing saying that 'I would like to be Madonna' equals a threat to kidnap her, lock her up, plet platic surgery vbe performed upon oneself and steal her identity.

If you take this too seriously, then you should be killed too, for you then clearly are a fascist.

WHen 'Threats' like this become actionable in your fascist country, you have reached a new low.

Hi Frank! Terroristic threats and harassment have long been a crime in this country. Free speech has its limits.

The question isn't whether I take this threat seriously or not. I don't. I think Lyme patients are pretty much all talk no action. But I know them. Too well.

The point is that this represents the community poorly and can easily be taken out of context and used to smear all Lyme patients just as the statements that you made about killing dr steere were in fact used to make all Lyme patients look bad.

Why give ammunition to people who disagree with you?

In this case the title of the thread was "Dattwyler should be killed." It might be fair to take the content of the post as venting. But the title is the title. And it could easily be used for someone's purposes to make Lyme patients look bad just as your statement about dr steere which I assume was not serious but was venting your emotions was taken to make all Lyme patients look bad in the New York Times Magazine which is read all over the entire world.

Maybe not your proudest moment?

Or maybe it was?

But what I really want to know is: Do you really want to be madonna? Do you mean the religious figure or the pop culture movie and music star? Although her movies leave something to be desired if you've ever seen them. That Evita was a borefest featuring some of the worst singing in history by antonio banderas.

So do you dress up like Madonna? If so, could you post a picture? LOL Desperately seeking susan was good but that wasn't really a madonna movie. More Roseanna Arquette than Madonna.

But that doesn't change the fact that threats are threats and saying that Dattwyler should be killed is fairly taken to be a threat and is actionable by law enforcement authorities as a terroristic threat.

Be well Frank. Good health to you!

Hi Brainless Person,

My post about Steere was one line;
"Steere has been scheduled for termination".

Now, in which CONTEXT did I post this?...

The thread was about an investigation of Steere, and what the outcome would be, if he would be allowed to keep his job.

I didn't have a clue that they ripped my posting out of context and that this Steere fellow was much crazier than I thought (He took a 'bodyguard', not just any bodyguard, but a bodyguard that protected people from the UnaBomber, whoaoa!) WHEN I heard about it, I thought: 'Ah, journalists, as long as it sells the paper they'll write anything'.

Anyone who runs to the newspapers with that, shows that he is desperate to use vile demagogy, manipulation and lies to make lymies look like idiots. So instead of attacking me, you should defend me. If you attack me, it shows that you are in Steeres camp, or an utter imbecile.

ALso, avoiding my point like you do, and implying that I would like to be Madonna, is very weak tactics to make an opponent look ridiculous. Arguments please, we are serious people here, lives are at stake, I know you think we're all a bunch of loonies, but that's a mental illness, we have a chronic bacteriological infection, we can't help you with your problems.

Baloney.

It is not relevant what a moron thinks in this case.

For all practical purposes, a threat is a threat when any judge may deem it a threat.

What some weenie thinks, I couldn't care less.

I am well connected in police circles.

Police folk says that unless you do not directly threaten someone (with words), you are not threatening AT ALL, legally.

So it is completely legal to say: "I know where you and your children live and I have a gun".

If you choose to see this as a threat and say ANYTHING "legally" threatening back, you will find yourself in serious –legal– trouble.

You can be sued and a judge is OBLIGED to convict you. In the US a judge must abide by the law and a real legal threat is a real legal threat.

Language that can be perceived threatening by a moron but legally is not a threat, is not a threat.

What a moron weenie thinks is irrelevant.

A threat is: "I know where you live and I will one day come and mess you up".

That would be reason enough to get the person arrested and in very, very big trouble.

In such a case no anonymous remailer service will save you from the long arm of the law.

A real threat is a crime and in case of a crime, your anonymity is out the door.

When you are not very up-to-date with the law, I strongly advise that you refrain from voicing any semi-threats because you can easily cross a legal line.

Any real threat voiced on a newsgroup is a disaster for the person voicing the threat.

It is 100% irrefutable legal proof that this person has committed a serious crime that often carries a jail sentence, with a good lawyer.

It is easy to get carried away and cross the line of what is legally a threat.

And how ever much people PERCIEVE certain things as a threat, when it is not legally a threat, there is absolutely nothing to be done, legally. And if you decide to do something illegally about it and it was not LEGALLY a threat (AND a direct unavoidable life-or-death threat to your immediate direct life which is totally provable unavoidable, like a guy standing next to your bed with a shotgun aimed at you) – you will find yourself in the electric chair, gas chamber, at the end of a rope or before a firing squad.

At the very least gangfucked by Bubba and his buddies for the rest of your pathetic and short life.

Of course.

That's not even forbidden in the world's strictest dictatorships.

WHAT you say about those people, and especially exactly HOW you say it, that's the issue.

> Is it legal to say:

> –You should see Docsname.

Of course.

> –Docsname is a quack!

Nope.

Can get you straight to jail.

However, saying: "I think that Dr. Kuijper from Flevoziekenhuis in Almere is a criminal quack" is 100% legal.

> -Docname from docs-hospital is a criminal.

Nope. Your website might be closed and you may have to pay a huge fine.

Saying: "Dr. Kuijper has in my opinion displayed criminal negligence in his profession that has in my opinion lead to the preventable death of many of his patients and I think he should be locked up in jail" is perfectly 100% legal.

> -Docname address is 666 docstreet.

100% legal.

Doc's adresses are no secrets.

What you are allowed to say and what not can be tricky.
For example, if I would say to you: "I am going to hurt your kids", you can let me be arrested and I am in a world of trouble.

If I say: "I have been following you and your kids, I know where you live, I have a knife, I am a trained killer", there is absolutely nothing to be done, legally. It is not a threat and it is not (yet) stalking. If you would not take great care with exactly how to voice a counter-threat, you yourself would be in for arrest/fine etc.

Laws are different per country though. In the US it's perfectly legal to summarily execute anyone who enters your home uninvited., regardless whether he's armed or however apologetic.

In the Netherlands, this will get you into deep trouble.

Libel and Slander laws are even weirder. It's not allowed to say untrue things about people, except when you can prove that what you say is true, BUT there are catches, when you divulge true facts about a person with malicious intent, you can still be held accountable legally, in some countries and some cases.

This is why you should always be on the safe side and use "Freedom of expression", always say that it is "your opinion" and if possible, give reasons. You might think that implicitly stating that it is your opinion is an extra legal risk, while in fact it isn't, you have thereby used your right to free speech.

Stating something as if it were an undisputed fact is much riskier.

Hi Joel,

I am up-to-date with all legal ramifications of assisted suicide.
What you say is 100% correct, regarding your country.

But...

I am a citizen of Holland, and when in Holland, subject to the Dutch laws.

Whe just got a new law (2 weeks old!) that makes it fully LEGAL to kill someone who asks for it, if this person's suffering warrants it, and this person is not emotionally instable.

So anyone who wants to commit suicide and needs help can come to me and I will kill them, legally.

Of course I wouldn't be as stupid as to come over to the States and do such a thing. I will never enter the territory of the US willingly, nor will I subject myself to your fascist laws.

I will neither be intimidated by you nor anybody else to restrict my speech on this subject.

Like I have done in the past and as I do now, please put me in you killfilter if you do not agree with me, rather than challenging my right of speech.

Below is a post by a vile piece of Euro-trash who said that America deserved what we got when Islamic militants hijacked planes and murdered thousands of innocent people. This "Frank" is typical of the Euro-scum who fan the flames of anti-American hatred.

My personal opinion about you, sir, is that as soon as you get out of your house, someone should shoot you in the back of the neck and let your carcass lie there for the dogs.

These few people who have so heroically sacrificed their lives to fight against USA fascist imperialism are dead already. They have provided fair warning by blowing up the WTC basement first, a few years ago.

No need to murder thousands of civilians, burn children, let hundreds of thousands of refugees starve as retaliation. And what the US has done to the Taliban amounts to kidnapping and a violation of the Geneva convention.

Your comments about me also have nothing to do with Lyme. You brought mr.
Bush up, so I replied.

You stupid yankees never seem to get it into your thick skulls that small firearms kill more yankies in a month, than that punitive action against the WTC did. That whole WTC thing is insignificant and non-important on a global scale. Independent experts estimate that as a result of the 10 year long
US-enforced embargo against Iraq, ONE AND A HALF MILLION citizens lost their lives.

That's 500 WTC's.
50 WTC's a year.
1 WTC a week for 10 years, you stupid jackass.
You yanks can go fuck yourself with your delusions of grandiosity and pathetic self-pity.
And mr. Bush has involved the American people in a bloody war by misleading
the people in supporting:
'When this turns out to be bigger than Pearl Harbor, we will retaliate'.
When the killing spree in Afghanistan was over, suddenly the WTC death toll was halved from 6000 to 3000.
You yanks are nothing but puppets on a string.

The USA is in for hard times, mark my words.
Fascism NEVER survives. NEVER.
People will gladly sacrifice their lives to get rid of scum like you.
The US has to finally understand that people do not want you giving support to fascist regimes throughout the world.
That people will go on suicide missions out of pure hate for what you are doing to them.

Remember Mogadishu?
You killed 500 unarmed, barefoot women and children, because some rebels behind them and near them were shooting at you. You yanks freak out when a few of you get killed. Like you are 1000 times more valuable than the people
YOU kill.
Get real. Nobody gives a shit about yankee lives. Many educated white christians in countries allied with the US reacted with PLEASURE at

sight of those towers coming down. When you think of it, it's sad, but it is true.

Frank

I hope that you go out of your mind with the disease, Frank

I would like to apologize on behalf of the Kingdom of the Netherlands

Hi Bruno!

Thanks for this repost.
It's off-topic though, but I like it when people quote my stuff.
I tried to send you an email but it bounced BTW.

Re: Weisman legal action update

It was about this stuff you wrote about that cut throat. I have seen in reality how that goes (with a guy) and that guy didn't move when his throat was cut. He only made *really* horrible sounds and he moved with his legs, but not much, just a bit up (he was lying on the ground when they just stuck the knife into his throat from the side and sawed to the front, no blood until the knife came out at the front. His hands were tied behind his back and they stood on his head, so he couldn't move much but he seemed paralyzed from fear. You doubted whether that was realistic, well it is, at least in his case.

I wrote all this details about it, I'm not going to post it here though, it's extremely, eh....

Frank

BTW Bruno, come visit me sometimes. You know my address.

No, I don't know your address, scumbag. How the hell would I know your address? You never gave it to me. You never posted it. You said that you tried to e-mail me to no avail. Why don't you post your address for all of us to see?

Hilarious!

Thanks for the repost.

I will send this to my girlfriend too.

BTW I finally posted that letter to Google.
Let's see what happens.

I have to hurry because soon New York will be a glass surface anyway, as far as Al Qaida's threats go.

OK sure thing. I'm not holding my breath since you are so far off base

Since when is pointing out another person's threat a threat?
Just because your gummint has pressured the Emir of Qatar not to let Al Jazeera air the last OBL tape, does not make my info a terrorist threat. It is just FYI.

OBL's last tape allegedly says that he is gonna nuke the US in a few days.

Oh.

The ASCA says the US is going to get nuked in a few days:

No idea who they are, but they seem to be a US organization.

Frank your concern for us is touching. Your advice to have fun is well taken. I'm going to invite Nicollete Sheridan, Terri Hatcher, Eva Langoria and the rest of the desperate housewives over to drop their towels. Yes this will contribute to the unfortunate moral decay of society that the nazi religious right puritanical thought police are so concerned about and feel that government has some appropriate and primary role in preventing but what the hell. IF you're right our time is short and we're all going to hell anyway.

So what the f.

Thanks for the heads up.

If you have any further specific threat information including specific targets (or can we assume the entire country will be attacked?) please send it along and I will continue to send your messages to our Department of Homeland Insanity, identifying the source as an Islamic Jihadist Dutch "refugee" living in Norway at:

Well I would assume that the US will attack itself, just like the US attacked itself on 9/11.

In that case, they would like to keep their Ministry of Propaganda intact so Hollywood will be a safe place.
