Your postings are EXACTY what is on Quakwatch. So...either

#1. You run Quakwatch. Which means that you do not accept any theory, treatment, or study that is not Anglo Saxon in original. It is one of the most racist sites I have ever seen. Right up there with JewWatch.

#2. These words are not your own, but you are using them as your own. That is called Plagerism. Or commonly refered to as stealing.
