Hmmm....my impression was that Areneli is answering the question whether he is male or female. Someone else posted, "I'll go first, I'm a she."

So Areneli responds, "I am he."

I thought the way to deal with trolls is not to feed them.

Why is the feeding going on and on?

Its out there.
Advisory to news:sci.med.diseases.lyme readers:

Over the past few years, this newsgroup has become very inhospitable, unreliable and often unsupportive regarding presentation of scientific information and support. Certain frequent posters spend much or all of their time attempting to discredit people who post truthful, valid posts. One or more bullies may actually be paid or compensated somehow to monopolize this newsgroup and discredit valid posts in order to protect a very conservative but antiquated perspective on chronic Lyme disease.

Beware of posters who trash other posters, have a history of promoting McSweegan, American Lyme Disease Foundation, etc., complaining that there is too much discussion about chronic Lyme disease and not enough about acute Lyme disease, and/or who claim to be the elected "group leader" and that he is changing the charter. There is no such position on this newsgroup. Click here to see the charter. (Be sure to copy any part of this long link that may wrap to the next line.)

Hello Everyone

I just want to apologize for my very angry post to this thread..I came to Lymenet for information and encouragement and my post doesn't even come close to what I want to give back to everyone else..

If you see my recent post in the general support forum that may help explain things..

This was totally out of character for me and again I apologize.

Cathy

Advisory to LymeNet Messageboard readers:

Over the past few years, this Messageboard has become very inhospitable, unreliable and often unsupportive regarding presentation of scientific information and support. Certain frequent posters spend much or all of their time attempting to discredit people who post truthful, valid posts. One or more bullies may actually be paid or compensated somehow to monopolize this Messageboard and discredit valid posts in order to protect their own views about Lyme and views about how "their" Messageboard should look like.

Beware of posters who trash other posters, call people TROLLS, have a history of promoting Rife machines, Samento and other "Miracle cures", defend and harass a person who dares to criticize a "LLMD" even when the person has valid arguments against a certain "LLMD"; also beware of posters who promote IV Ceftriaxone as if it's a "Miracle treatment" and give other dangerous medical advice, while they have no real clue what they are talking about, etc.

i would not worry about it too much boston.lymenet has seen these kind of character's before more lately.

you will know the real people at lymentet...

hey treepatrol, nice job!! also look's like you smoked another one out...tag 'em and bag'em..lol

i do think the moderator's should look into this..they do have the power to ban..i know,they told me...

sweet dream's kiddie's and don't forget your prayer's.....gary
