Well, because Kathleen has made HER personal problems...not only the problems of the entire Lyme community...

....but also various other usenet groups.

But she and her little Goebbels sidekick have been insisting that her "personal" problems were created as a result of her "daring to speak out about Lyme disease"...

....which is pretty damn interesting if you consider that this logically means that her ex husband, sister and family were all involved in a massive conspiracy to "get" her...along with the State of Connecticut, etc, etc...

But...I will let you in on a little secret...

....I could care less. We've heard the same story over and over...she's obviously disturbed.

But this was a little exercise in demonstrating that she is also very, very untruthful...

....I fully expected her to refuse to acknowledge any of her recent "personal problems". She would have been much smarter to just admit them.

But understand something...just because she has problems and is "stressed"...doesn't mean she can't comprehend the difference between right and wrong...

....and where she wound up is a direct result of her aggressive and abusive attitude...and the type of bomb-hurling politics and mindset that she wants everyone else, apparently to accept.

Yeah, I am a bad guy for picking on poor Kathleen?
