Well, what do you mean exactly, by "positive experiences"?

Do you mean, for instance, something like this:

"Hey chuck you suck, you're one sick f---k, and you're out of luck. choke on that sicko".

Or...perhaps:

"We pray for you too. To rot in hell ed".

(I am not a particularly religious type myself...but I thought you weren't supposed to pray to send someone else to hell...what kind of religion do you practice, anyway)?

Is this what you mean by "positive experience"?...or are you talking about labelling people "Ed" or "McSweegan"...or "asshole" just because they disagree with you?

You are just all happy-face, lollipops and rainbows, huh?
