LOL. That's a hilarious concept.
Worthy of a television series.

And I have indeed envisioned what these guys will say. I try to trace back to some of their excuses, like Barbour at the Albany Lyme Hearing.

And McSweegan blaming the fact that he was chastised and discredited by the NIH, resulting in him being avoided, on his bosses. Earlier, he reported the incompetence of the Navy to Senator Goldwater, specifically making the claim that it was inefficient to have corpsman be lab techs, because they hadn't the scientific training.

So then he sits there, doing nothing from 1995 to 1998, charging us $100,000 a year.

Did you ever read The Divine Comedy?

Lenny Sigal, the master of apology, when the source of this ridiculous confusion is himself, since he identified valid markers of disease in Fibromyalgia and Lyme. Do his FM/Lyme victims get these tests he described earlier? NOT.
